CAUSE

On January 30, 2008, Montgomery, AL Police Officer R.I. Sirmon conducted a traffic stop on a blue Ford Crown Victoria bearing tag number 3B3826N. The tag was registered to a beige Mercury Grand Marquis. Officer Sirmon made contact with the driver, and the driver identified himself as Jerome Lassic with a date of birth of July 11, 1983. The driver advised Officer Sirmon that he did not have identification. The passenger advised Officer Sirmon that the driver's name was Dre. Upon further questioning, the driver identified himself as James Lassic. The passenger again advised Officer Sirmon that the driver's name was Dre. The driver finally identified himself as Andre Lassic with a date of birth of November 4, 1985. Andre Lassic was arrested for Providing False Name to Law Enforcement Officer.

It was later determined that Andre Lassic had an active warrant for probation violation with the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles. Andre Lassic is currently being supervised on probation with the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles. On January 15, 2008, State Probation Officer LaShay Luster prepared a violation report on Andre Lassic for Failure to Report to the Probation Officer as Directed, Failure to Pay Supervision Fees, and Failure to Pay Court Ordered Monies. Andre Lassic has a history of noncompliance while under supervision.

On February 7, 2008, Andre Lassic was released from the Montgomery County, AL Jail, and he was reinstated on state probation.

On February 8, 2008, Andre Lassic reported to the United States Probation Office. Upon questioning, the offender stated that he gave a false name to the police, because he knew he had a warrant with state probation. In addition to the arrest for Providing False Name to Law Enforcement Officer, Andre Lassic owes $2,000 in restitution. Andre Lassic has made no payments toward his restitution since being placed on probation on October 30, 2007.
